Somehow I'll find a way
To get back home find a place to play
No more gigs so far away
I'm driving home

Somehow we'll get a loan
I'll find a job we'll buy a home no more phones just us alone
I'm coming home

1.
I quit my gig tonight
No one ever came I sang to chairs
Then they cut my nightly rate
Put me down as the second bill

And every night between my sets
I'd sit alone and think of you

I'm driving home
With guitars and microphones
I quit my gig and I'm coming home

Somehow I'll find a way
To get back home find a place to play
No more gigs so far away
I'm driving home
Mile after mile on and on through Ohio at least its flat
I'm driving home

2
I called the talent agency
From the lobby of my cheap motel
I couldn't pay the rent I owed
Because they never paid me myself
The agency said they had enough for a rental car out of there
So, I'm driving home
Full of guitars and microphones
I quit my gig, I'm driving home

Somehow I'll find a way
I'll get back home find a place to play
I'll get a job I'll work all day
I'm driving home <mile after mile>

Somehow I'll get a loan
I'll find a job I'll buy you a home
No more apartments, no more phones
We'll be alone <mile after mile>

Somehow I'll get back home
I'll find some money I'll work alone
I'll get a job I'll find a way
I'm driving home

how wide is ohio
siri how wide is ohio
how wide is ohio
I'm trying to get home / I'm driving home

Somehow I'll find a way
To stay at home find a place to play
No more gigs so far away
I'm driving home
