Better, better, better, better, yes yes yes

Let's pretend / we're young and amorous
Let's Pretend / life is glamorous
Let's pretend / the years have been generous
Let's pretend tonight

Time breaks down and we lose control
Fantasies spill out like a waterfall
We think we're younger but we know we're not
Let's pretend tonight

Let's pretend / we're smart and curious
Let's pretend / our lives are luxurious
Let's pretend / our love is mysterious
Let's pretend tonight

Let's pretend / remember old emotions
Let's pretend / all the commotion
Let's undress and turn off the lights
Let's pretend tonight

<bridge>
yeah, yeah, yeah
Let's pretend tonight
